Software Consultant and Trainer

Since January 2000 I have delivered over 500 courses, workshops and mentoring sessions - from which I have consistently achieved excellent feedback. I am fluent in Java, C# and C++ and have considerable experience of Perl and Ruby. I have authored over twenty separate courses and workshops, which are continuously updated to track emerging standards and tools.

Typical examples of my work include:
- Bespoke programs for migrating experienced Java developers to .NET (and vice-versa)
- Continuous mentoring to teams implementing their first JEE or .NET projects
- Workshops for Java developers in Agile Methods, Design Patterns and UML
- Induction programs lasting two to three months for large groups of IT graduates
- Preparing candidates for the Sun Java certification process
